

Young Living ESSENTIAL OILS™

Aromatherapy

Only therapeutic grade, high vibration Young Living essential oils are used, because I know without doubt that they are not perfume grade, adulterated or synthetic. They are of the highest quality and purity, meeting the requirements of both AFNOR and the ISO certification.

These amazing oils are produced in such away that the integrity and vibration of the original plant are retained, so not only are you receiving the aromatic benefits and chemical properties of the original plants, but the plants vibration which has the capacity to provide support physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually. I use these oils as part of every treatment I provide unless you request otherwise. The results speak themselves.
